

Transcendentals – Copyright Details for Submissions

By submitting your work, you are giving Transcendentals, permission to publish your work online and share it through social media. You retain full original rights to your creative work, however we ask that if your work was originally published through Transcendentals you reference that publication when you share or re-publish your work. We are technically asking for the first and archival electronic rights to your work.

